

LOWER TRANSPORTATION RISK WITH RYDER DEDICATED

In light of the Supreme Court ruling in Montgomery v. Caribe, many companies are reassessing transportation risk and exposure tied to third-party carrier selection and operational oversight. Ryder Dedicated Transportation is a best-in-class, asset-based solution with a proven safety record that directly manages drivers, equipment, safety and compliance programs, maintenance, and day-to-day transportation operations within a highly controlled operating environment designed to improve consistency, reliability, and risk mitigation.

Helping Reduce Transportation Risk & Liability Exposure

Ryder helps customers reduce operational complexity and transportation-related exposure by assuming responsibility for day-to-day transportation operations, including:

- Driver hiring, onboarding, and management
- Safety oversight and training
- Preventive fleet maintenance
- Compliance processes
- Proven continuous improvement
- Operational planning and execution
- Transportation management support

Our disciplined operational model helps customers mitigate exposure associated with:

- Transportation-related liability
- Accident and safety risk
- Insurance pressures
- Driver recruitment and retention
- Worker's compensation
- Fleet maintenance responsibility
- Capacity instability and service disruption

Dedicated transportation provides one of the lowest-risk models for moving freight through a professionally managed transportation operation.

The Ryder Dedicated Difference

Unlike transactional transportation models that rely heavily on third-party carrier networks, Ryder Dedicated Transportation provides customers with a fully managed operation designed around their network, service requirements, and business goals. As a result, you gain greater consistency, accountability, and operational visibility across their transportation network.

Ryder by the Numbers

- 13,000+ professional drivers
- #1 in safety
- 0.41 accidents per million miles
- One of North America's largest transportation networks
